"The true mark of civilization is the ability to chill one's libations from insufferable climates." No one ever actually said that, but it sounds like a perfectly reasonable historical quote all the same. That's why our J56 ice chest is designed to keep drinks cold no matter how high the mercury rises. A glass ice bucket wrapped in black leather mock croc, accompanied with brass ice tongs also wrapped in leather, all supported atop an ebony stained mahogany tray, makes the J56 the ideal accessory for your next civilized mixer.
