Sure, it's technically a lounge chair, but we like to think of it more like a throne for lounging. The off white / brown / tan patterned fabric seat and back cushions, framed by dark brown stained wood, with paddle shaped arm support and back frame detailing – all work together to elevate this into a more regal experience. The seat cushion is robust to say the least, and the armrests are wide enough to support a libation or paperback – perfect for a king or queen of lounging.
